Appropriate Worship at the Throne of GOD

Revelation 4:1-11

- ❖ The Person of GOD demands our worship (vv. 1-3).
- ❖ The privileges of GOD calls for our worship (v. 4).
- ❖ The power of GOD bids our worship (v. 5).
- ❖ The perfect holiness of GOD stresses our worship (vv. 6-7).
- ❖ The matchless worth and creative work of GOD necessitates our worship (vv. 8-11).

Reflection Questions:

- How has the pandemic affected your worship unto GOD? What can you do to cultivate a doxological heart?
- What aspects of God's character and splendor draw you to praise and worship Him? Have you been in the scriptures to see these attributes?
- This passage implicitly invites us to worship the One who is on the throne. The elders do so by bowing down. How do you express your worship to the King of kings?
- Why is it noteworthy that the elders cast their crowns, which the Lord gave them, before the throne? What has the Lord given you that you can use to worship Him? What are you tempted to withhold from God that He is worthy of?
